Docket No. 4827, Order of U.S. District Court Judge Colleen McMahon signed on 4/22/2024. The Bankruptcy Court's order is vacated. For the reasons discussed above, this court directs that the parties shall immediately submit the disputes pleaded in the Adversary Proceeding Complaint to arbitration in accordance with the AAA Rules for Commercial Arbitration. Any challenge to the arbitrability of any claim asserted in that pleading is reserved for the arbitrator. The Adversary Proceeding is stayed in the Bankruptcy Court pending arbitration. This constitutes the decision and order of this court on appeal. The Clerk of Court is directed to remove this appeal from the court's list of open items.

Statement of Issues Being Appealed

1. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in not detecting fabricated tabulation evidence, where Custody CEL Holders obtained full dollarized claim ballots as request by the debtors and ordered by the Court pursuant to the CEL Settlement which excluded Custody Claims, yet the tabulation showed a 0.25 cent valuation on the class?
2. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in allowing a Plan Supplement material assignment of 5 days prior to Trial and after the Plan Supplement Deadline, not providing adequate notice to affected creditors to prepare and object to the change?
3. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in not applying the unambiguous phrase of “any holder of an Allowed Custody Claim”, present on the Custody Settlement, which was added to Plan’s 6B voting instructions after solicitation, to all holders of Custody Claims, which were manifestly evident on the tabulation results?
4. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in rewriting and reinterpreting tabulated results?
5. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in not using it’s inherent power to investigate fraud, which included contradictions?
6. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in not allowing the pursuit of a remedy for 88 Pure Custody creditors and an entire class of thousands of CEL Token Holders that remain prejudiced?
7. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in determining I withdrew all my eligible funds, when I was only eligible to withdraw 36% prior to the commencement of subsequent withdrawals, and it would of been financially unwise to withdraw the rest of my funds, as the applicable shortfall conversion was financially superior?
8. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in determining “Pure Custody” funds could get less than 100% recovery?

9. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in determining there as an abundance of CEL Token, when the debtors destroyed all CEL Tokens on effective day, and subsequently ceased supporting the only avenue capable of distributing any Cryptocurrency in-kind, creating a Shortfall?
10. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in not following a precedential conversion of LUNA/TERA to Custody CEL Tokens?
11. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in applying the CEL Token Settlement to the Exempt Custody Class?
12. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in showing procedural bias and leniency in favor of represented parties, but did not extend the same to Pro Se creditors?
13. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in indicating distribution of CEL Token was possible, after the debtors and committee indicated it could not be returned in kind?
14. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in not addressing the movement of Custody CEL Token which it never provided permission for ahead of Confirmation?
15. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in not addressing a Protective Order Violation, where a family residence address of mine was posted on the docket by the Debtors, and subsequently serviced to the entire service list by Stretto?
16. Did the Bankruptcy Court err by not unsealing any information as it relates to CEL Token and related arguments?
17. Was there manifest injustice and prejudice?
18. Were the releases non-consensual and coercive?
19. Was the Bankruptcy Court Fair and Impartial?
20. Were my Constitutional Rights and due process rights violated?
